

Erasmus+

Popular Polish Folk Songs

Made by students from XXVII Liceum Ogólnokształcące in Lublin, Poland

CZERWONE JAGODY

- The girl laments that people don't think she's beautiful. She hopes that if she was beautiful she would meet the boy she would like to be with.

BYŁ SOBIE KRÓL

- It describe the history of the sugar king, gingerbread page, marzipan princess who lived an idyllic life, without suffering, but were eaten by a dog, cat and mouse respectively

A princess and page together

U PRZAŚNICZI SIEDZĄ

- This song tells about love dilemmas that translate into the daily chores of ordinary people. At the same time, it alludes to the difficult situation of Poles in the 19th century.

STOKROTKA
ROSŁA POLNA

- A description of the story of a lonely daisy will meet a scout and her life will change

Erasmus+

Material created during the project:
Developing educational techniques starting from regional context
RO01 KA201 063189