General Information:

- Romanian dress refers to the traditional clothing worn by Romanians, who live primarily in Romania and Moldova, with smaller communities in Ukraine and Serbia. Most people wear traditional clothing on special occasions, at ethnographic and folk events.

  Each historical region has its own specific variety of costume .*

Traditional clothing

The women's folk costume consists of:
naframa to cover the head,

a shirt embroidered with folk motifs, a belt

a skirt, a cloth a breastplate

and a pair of ,,sandals" made of pigskin tanned leather.

The men's suit is simpler, consisting of a long shirt, tight long pants that are made of home-woven fabric on the loom. Men put on a hand-woven belt or a leather chimera over their shirt.

Traditional clothing in Moldova

- The motifs of this traditional dress, different for men and women, have their beginnings in Dacia's time.

Motifs that are specific for women and children are: the cross, the embroidery on the threads, the bright colors, especially red and yellow often on a dark background, black or brown on the skirt, on the blouse and sleeves.

Traditional Clothing In The South:

The costume is over 100 years old, often inherited, from generation to generation, and it looks something like this:
